Admiral Raborn:

During our NRO discussion of Monday afternoon, we discussed the prospects for a CIA Deputy DNRO as a result of current negotiations. I pointed out that the existing agreement provides for such a Deputy with rather considerable authority. In fact, this position was thoroughly undermined when Gene Kiefer went over to fill it in Summer 1963. You asked to see the original 13 March 1963 agreement and the attached copy has sidelined the relevant provisions on page one and two.

You may wish to show this to Mr. Helms for his information.
